

NCAA WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

May 31-June 6, 2012

ASA Hall of Fame Stadium

Oklahoma City, Okla.

POSTGAME NOTES

Game 3: Alabama 5, Tennessee 3

- In the first game of Session 2, No. 2 seed Alabama downed Tennessee, 5-3. Alabama improved to 56-7 on the year while Tennessee fell to 52-13.
- Alabama improved to 32-16 all-time against the Lady Vols and holds a 2-1 advantage over UT this season.
- Tennessee sustained its first loss in opening-round play at the WCWS after entering today's contest with a 4-0 record. Tennessee is now 12-9 all-time in the event.
- In its eighth WCWS appearance, Alabama improved to 9-14 in the event and to 2-6 in opening-round games. The Crimson Tide also won its opener last year.
- Alabama's nine-game winning streak is tied with Oklahoma for the nation's longest.
- Alabama senior Cassie Reilly-Boccia hit a three-run double in the first inning to put the Crimson Tide up 3-0. She later scored in the inning as Alabama plated four runs before making an out.
- With its four runs in the opening frame, the Tide has now outscored its opponents 107-23 in the first inning this year. Alabama improved to 30-1 when scoring in the first inning and to 43-2 when scoring first.
- Tennessee sophomore Melissa Davin hit her eighth home run of the year to plate the Lady Vols' first two runs in the second inning. Davin scored another run in the seventh inning as a pinch runner.
- Alabama senior Jennifer Fenton extended her hitting streak to 11 games with her fourth-inning single and has reached base in 14 straight contests. In five NCAA tournament games this year, Fenton is batting .600 (12-for-20) with eight runs and five RBI.
- Alabama sophomore pitcher Jackie Traina recorded her 38th win of the year, tying the single-season school record originally set by Shelley Laird in 2000. Traina tossed a complete game, surrendering three runs on five hits while striking out eight and walking three.
- Tennessee junior pitcher Ivy Renfro fell to 25-9 on the year following today's loss. Renfro gave up four runs (three earned) on three hits and four walks in 2.2 innings pitched.